PROFILE

I am a Full-Stack JavaScript Developer. I build modern and fast websites and web apps. I work with the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express, React, Node.js) and Next.js.

I make easy-to-use pages, strong APIs, and safe back-end systems. I focus on clean code, good performance, and real-world problems.

Right now, I am learning more about Next.js, like server-side rendering, API routes, and cloud hosting. I am also learning AWS and DevOps tools to build better full-stack apps.

I like to learn new things, work with others, and create useful web solutions that help people.
